

The Independent Consumer's Bimonthly Guide to Fine Wine

Dos 2006

88 Points

Bodegas Rafael Cambra is a relatively new estate with its first vintage in 2001. The crimson-colored 2006 Dos is composed of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon and 50% Cabernet Franc aged for 10 months in seasoned French oak. It exhibits an enticing perfume of cedar, cinnamon, clove, cassis, and cherry leading to a medium-bodied, fruity, forward wine with a smooth texture and solid length. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years.

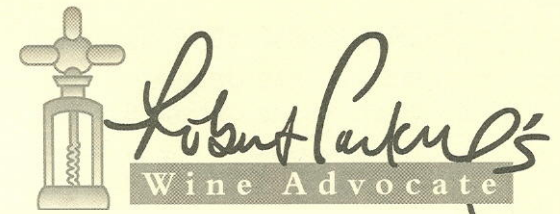

The Independent Consumer's Bimonthly Guide to Fine Wine

Dos 2006

88 Points

Bodegas Rafael Cambra is a relatively new estate with its first vintage in 2001. The crimson-colored 2006 Dos is composed of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon and 50% Cabernet Franc aged for 10 months in seasoned French oak. It exhibits an enticing perfume of cedar, cinnamon, clove, cassis, and cherry leading to a medium-bodied, fruity, forward wine with a smooth texture and solid length. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years.

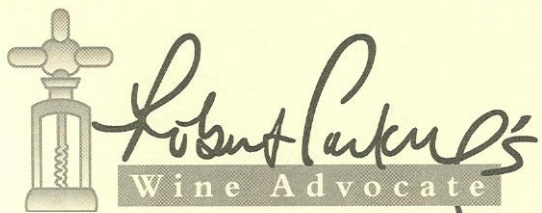

The Independent Consumer's Bimonthly Guide to Fine Wine

Dos 2006

88 Points

Bodegas Rafael Cambra is a relatively new estate with its first vintage in 2001. The crimson-colored 2006 Dos is composed of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon and 50% Cabernet Franc aged for 10 months in seasoned French oak. It exhibits an enticing perfume of cedar, cinnamon, clove, cassis, and cherry leading to a medium-bodied, fruity, forward wine with a smooth texture and solid length. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years.

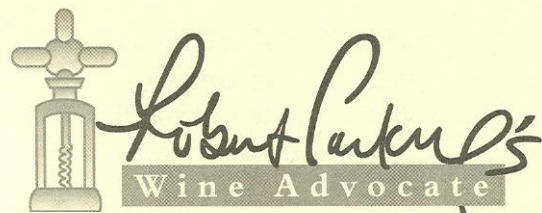

The Independent Consumer's Bimonthly Guide to Fine Wine

Dos 2006

88 Points

Bodegas Rafael Cambra is a relatively new estate with its first vintage in 2001. The crimson-colored 2006 Dos is composed of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon and 50% Cabernet Franc aged for 10 months in seasoned French oak. It exhibits an enticing perfume of cedar, cinnamon, clove, cassis, and cherry leading to a medium-bodied, fruity, forward wine with a smooth texture and solid length. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years.

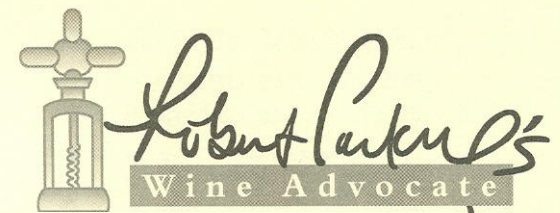

The Independent Consumer's Bimonthly Guide to Fine Wine

Dos 2006

88 Points

Bodegas Rafael Cambra is a relatively new estate with its first vintage in 2001. The crimson-colored 2006 Dos is composed of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon and 50% Cabernet Franc aged for 10 months in seasoned French oak. It exhibits an enticing perfume of cedar, cinnamon, clove, cassis, and cherry leading to a medium-bodied, fruity, forward wine with a smooth texture and solid length. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years.

The Independent Consumer's Bimonthly Guide to Fine Wine

Dos 2006

88 Points

Bodegas Rafael Cambra is a relatively new estate with its first vintage in 2001. The crimson-colored 2006 Dos is composed of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon and 50% Cabernet Franc aged for 10 months in seasoned French oak. It exhibits an enticing perfume of cedar, cinnamon, clove, cassis, and cherry leading to a medium-bodied, fruity, forward wine with a smooth texture and solid length. Drink this tasty effort over the next six years.