

Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno 2002
Rated: 91 Points

The 2002 Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno is an outstanding effort in a difficult vintage. Made from 100% Garnacha aged 22 months in one-year-old French oak casks and bottled unfiltered, this full-bodied, showy, purple-colored wine offers fragrant aromas of kirsch, vanilla bean, and blueberry. The aromas lead into layers of intense cherry and blueberry fruits that nicely conceal the moderate, but silky tannins. The finish is long and pure. Kudos to the Pablo family!

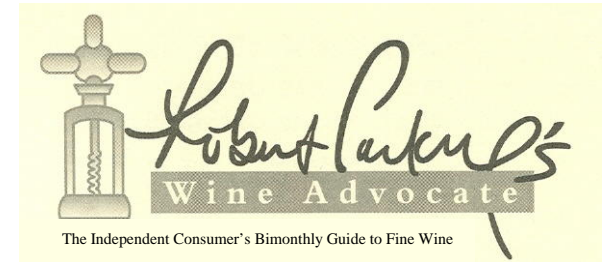

(Issue 169 02-28-07)

Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno 2002
Rated: 91 Points

The 2002 Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno is an outstanding effort in a difficult vintage. Made from 100% Garnacha aged 22 months in one-year-old French oak casks and bottled unfiltered, this full-bodied, showy, purple-colored wine offers fragrant aromas of kirsch, vanilla bean, and blueberry. The aromas lead into layers of intense cherry and blueberry fruits that nicely conceal the moderate, but silky tannins. The finish is long and pure. Kudos to the Pablo family!

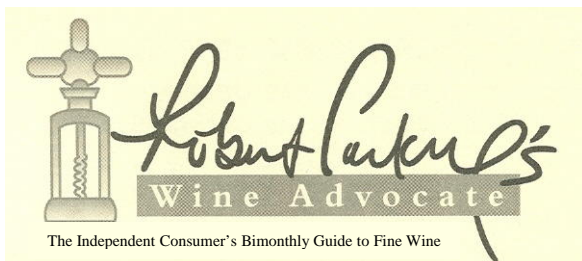

(Issue 169 02-28-07)

Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno 2002
Rated: 91 Points

The 2002 Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno is an outstanding effort in a difficult vintage. Made from 100% Garnacha aged 22 months in one-year-old French oak casks and bottled unfiltered, this full-bodied, showy, purple-colored wine offers fragrant aromas of kirsch, vanilla bean, and blueberry. The aromas lead into layers of intense cherry and blueberry fruits that nicely conceal the moderate, but silky tannins. The finish is long and pure. Kudos to the Pablo family!

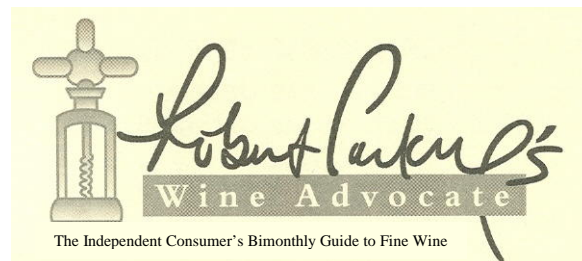

(Issue 169 02-28-07)

Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno 2002
Rated: 91 Points

The 2002 Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno is an outstanding effort in a difficult vintage. Made from 100% Garnacha aged 22 months in one-year-old French oak casks and bottled unfiltered, this full-bodied, showy, purple-colored wine offers fragrant aromas of kirsch, vanilla bean, and blueberry. The aromas lead into layers of intense cherry and blueberry fruits that nicely conceal the moderate, but silky tannins. The finish is long and pure. Kudos to the Pablo family!

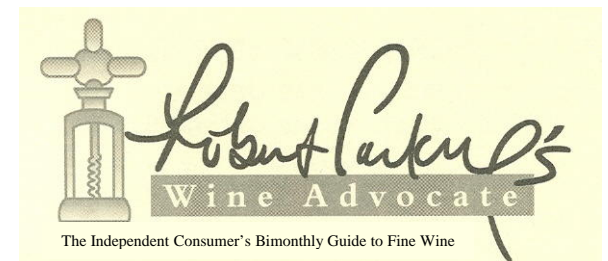

(Issue 169 02-28-07)

Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno 2002
Rated: 91 Points

The 2002 Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno is an outstanding effort in a difficult vintage. Made from 100% Garnacha aged 22 months in one-year-old French oak casks and bottled unfiltered, this full-bodied, showy, purple-colored wine offers fragrant aromas of kirsch, vanilla bean, and blueberry. The aromas lead into layers of intense cherry and blueberry fruits that nicely conceal the moderate, but silky tannins. The finish is long and pure. Kudos to the Pablo family!

(Issue 169 02-28-07)

Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno 2002
Rated: 91 Points

The 2002 Gran Viu Garnacha del Terreno is an outstanding effort in a difficult vintage. Made from 100% Garnacha aged 22 months in one-year-old French oak casks and bottled unfiltered, this full-bodied, showy, purple-colored wine offers fragrant aromas of kirsch, vanilla bean, and blueberry. The aromas lead into layers of intense cherry and blueberry fruits that nicely conceal the moderate, but silky tannins. The finish is long and pure. Kudos to the Pablo family!

(Issue 169 02-28-07)