THE QUARTERLY INDEPENDENT GUIDE TO DISTILLED SPIRITS, BEERS AND WINES

Pedro Romero Moscatel Sherry Dark Sweet

 / Recommended

Tawny / henna / auburn color with outstanding clarity. Curiously, the opening aroma emits wildly atypical fragrances of textile fiber, oleo margarine, and buttered popcorn; six more minutes of air contact bring out additional notes of rope hemp, rubber shoe sole, and canvas. Entry is keenly grapy and only medium-sweet; midpalate highlights the moderate sweetness / ripeness of the grapes and adds a likeable taste of tangerine / tangelo that lasts long in the agreeable finish.
