

Puelles Reserva 2004

90+ Points

Puelles Reserva 2004 delivers Asian spices, leather, lavender, mineral notes, and blackberry liqueur. Very concentrated, layered, and plush (a common characteristic in the great 2004 vintage), it will continue blossoming for another 2-3 years and provide prime drinking from 2013 to 2024. Bodegas Puelles is a 40 acre estate in Rioja Alavesa. Their wines are fermented with native yeasts and bottled without filtration.
